JERRY FOLEY, lately in the tailoring business in Decatur, is in trouble again at Bloomington. The Pantograph says Foley broke up in the business in that city some months ago, the sheriff taking all the goods and selling them except $400 worth which was exempt. This property Foley sold to his wife who commenced business herself with Foley in charge, with a lot of fresh goods. The Pantograph states that it was thought that the new supply was a part of the old stock that might have been hidden, and the sheriff again levied upon the entire stock to satisfy creditors. Mrs. Foley has relinquished the goods, and a trial of rights of property will be had. Jerry would have been happier had he remained in Decatur.

A Sad Accident.

Albert La Plenna, aged 9 years, son of Mr. P. H. La Plenna, a salesman at Linn & Scruggs's store, was drowned near the dam in the Sangamon river below the water works, on yesterday afternoon at about 4 o'clock. Albert had gone in swimming with a number of companions, and getting into deep water he was drowned before the boys could recover from their fright and come to his rescue. Immediate search was made to recover the body, but up to 2 o'clock this afternoon all efforts in this direction have proved unsuccessful. It is believed that the body was drawn under the apron of the dam by the reverse current, and today the gates of the dam were opened. This evening a party of young men will search the river south to the railway bridge.

$25 REWARD.

Messrs. Linn & Scruggs and their employees authorize us to say that they will pay twenty-five dollars reward for the recovery of the body of the drowned boy, to which $10 will be added by Supervisor Hill.

"Geo. M. Patchen" Dead.

It will be remembered that on Sunday, June 24th, Mr. Daniel W. Breuneman's celebrated chestnut sorrel driving stallion, "Geo. M. Patchen," age 12 years, weight 1050 pounds, accidentally broke his left foreleg while in his box stall at the stables on Franklin street. The limb was set and the horse was kept in a patent swiving three days and then taken out. It was confidently hoped the break would heal up and the life of the favorite roadster would be saved; but it was observed on Tuesday last that the horse could not live, and yesterday (July 4th) he dropped dead suddenly while efforts were being made to alleviate his sufferings. "George" was probably injured internally by the fall on the 24th, which with the sympathetic fever caused by the inflammation arising from the break, caused his death. Yesterday afternoon the dead roadster was removed to the Breuneman & Downing driving park and buried at the head of the homestead under the direction of Andy Dunston. All of "George's" trappings were buried with him. The roadster was one of the best known driving horses in Central Illinois, and could have been easily sold for $2,000. Four years ago he trotted three mile heads—first in 2:38, the second in 2:37, the third in 2:35, the last half mile in 1:15. Mr. Breuneman feels very badly over the death of "George." He did everything possible to save his life, but without success, and his only regret now is that he didn't have the stallion killed when he was hurt and thus put him out of his misery.

Resulted Fatally.

In our issue of Tuesday appeared an account of the accidental shooting of Frank Catherwood at Shelbyville by John Myers. Both young men were snapping what they supposed to be unloaded revolvers at each other, and Catherwood received a bullet in his neck. Yesterday the wounded man died. The deceased was a son of Dr. Catherwood and a nephew of Mr. Geo. P. Hardy, county clerk of this city, who received a telegram to-day announcing the death of Frank, whose age was about 23 years.

An Early Fire.

At 2 o'clock this morning, while nearly everybody was asleep, a party of negro serenaders coming south on Water street past the Roby residence, discovered the east end of Dr. Waleston's old dwelling, which has been occupied by Mrs. Wolf as a boarding house, to be on fire. The serenaders gave the alarm and hurried to the scene. The fire bells clanged for about 20 minutes, but before the department arrived the fire was put out. It was found that the weatherboarding at the east end, close to the roof of the one-story kitchen, had been generously sprinkled with coal oil and then set on fire by some party or parties at present unknown.

Captain Hewes of the night police found an old tin can inside the room near the open window of the roof, lying near two ticks filled with straw, and the can undoubtedly contained the oil that had been thrown on the weatherboarding and kitchen roof. The end of the house was burning briskly when the officer arrived and it was remarked that there was a strong smell of coal oil. The house was damaged to the extent of about $20. Mrs. Wolf, who vacated the house to-day, had removed nearly all of her goods yesterday to the Leforgee tenement property on Main street, half a block away. She was seen by a reporter this morning. She gave it as her opinion that somebody had certainly set the house on fire, but who did it she couldn't imagine. Dr. Waleston coincides with the opinion expressed by Mrs. Wolf, and he will endeavor to discover the identity of the guilty party. It will be recalled that the house was recovered before it got under way, as the Christian church and Dr. Waleston's new residence would have been destroyed or greatly damaged by the conflagration. Every effort should be made to apprehend the party who committed the arson.

Pretty Adornments.

The new street cars on the Citizens' line are very beautifully adorned with gilt signs advertising "Cheap Charlie's" clothing houses. They were made by the well-known artists, Myer & Son, and make handsome adornments for the new cars. We suggest that they be placed on all the cars. "Cheap Charlie" made a ten-strike in securing this privilege. He is always alive and never makes a move in the advertising line but it tells.

A Challenge.

To SERGEANT JAMES F. BOYD, Co. H, 6th Inf. We hereby challenge you to a prize drill for the badge awarded you last night at the Rifles' festival.

THE DAY WE CELEBRATED.

Union Temperance Picnic and Addresses at the Fair Grounds.

Church and Private Parties Take to the Woods.

Grand Display of Fireworks at Night—Balloons Ascending.

Patriotic Debutants people observed the Fourth of July yesterday in a fitting manner, by expending business and by participating in the several picnic parties organized for the legal holiday, which is the day of all the days for the small boy.

UNION TEMPERANCE PICNIC.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. celebrated at the fair grounds. The gates were open, free to all, and everybody was invited to visit the grounds and pass the day beneath the shade of the trees. There were several hundred people within the inclosure. The visitors took dinner in groups on the hillside, or patronized the refreshment tables in charge of the Union ladies in Textile Hall. Everyone was at liberty to stroll over the grounds, swing, run or jump, as best suited him, and all seemed to be having a happy time. The exercises embraced music by the Grand Army of the Republic band, singing by a colored quartette, and appropriate addresses by Capt. Linscott, of Michigan, who also recited a beautiful poem, Chas. J. Holt, lately returned from Missouri, and Mr. Charles S. Carens. The chairman was Captain Post. At about 5 o'clock the people began leaving the grounds and by 7 o'clock about all had departed. No accident occurred to mar the pleasure of the occasion, though the children were somewhat reckless in their romps and in climbing upon and racing over the roof of the shaky amphitheatre. The Decatur Rifles gave an exhibition drill.

THE MILITARY—FIREWORKS DISPLAY.

The members of the Decatur Rifles, Co. K, I. N. G., inaugurated a benefit fair and festival at the tabernacle on Tuesday evening, and it closed last night in the presence of a great crowd of people. It having been announced that there would be a display of fireworks, the streets for a block either way were occupied by a throng of men, women and children, who were manifestly delighted with the brilliant and beautiful pyrotechnic exhibition from the top of the tabernacle. The display opened with a hot air balloon ascension, the large red, white and blue tassel going high in the air and sailing grandly northward. The G. A. R. band descended from the roof of the building and entering the tabernacle they played several national airs, while the people gathered to witness the prize drill between sergeants for a $25 gold badge, and to engage in the festivities of the occasion.

The competing sergeants were: James F. Boyd, W. F. Colladay, J. M. Ehrman and Frank Swearingen, of the Guards, Co. H, and Sergeants Mortland and McClelland, of the Rifles. The judges were Lieut. Col. C. M. Durfee and Quartermaster W. H. Elwood, of the Fifth Regiment, and Captain Foster, of the Guards. The competing sergeants were drilled separately on the stage by Lieut. F. P. Wells for the Guards, and by Lieut. Samuel Lyon for the Rifles. The exhibition was one of special interest and commanded general attention. The judges decided that Sergeant Boyd had excelled his companions in drilling and he was awarded the prize. The various tables were liberally patronized, the total receipts footing up about $400. The prizes offered were voted to the following parties:

Easy chair, Captain Elwood, Q. M.; lady's gold watch, Miss Etta Vermillion; silver cake basket, Mrs. David Berlin; mechanical pipe, Lieut. Sam. Lyons; was doll, Miss Nettie Smith; silver police badge, Capt. J. W. Hartley. The Leader sewing machine and Vapor stove were not disposed of.

The people in the neighborhood of Harriswood engaged in a union celebration picnic at Batheider's shady grove. There were several hundred persons on the grounds. Miss Amanda Pickrell read the Declaration of Independence but no speeches were delivered. Rev. Goodie being engaged elsewhere. A grand good time is reported.

Four miles northwest of the city on the Orlando Powers farm, leased by Mr. Perry, a jolly company of Decatur young ladies and gentlemen had a happy time all by themselves in a breezy grove. Toothsome refreshments were plentiful. The party embraced Misses Francis Shellabarger, Annie Chambers, Jeanette Bowers, Lula, Ida and Hattie Jones, Maud Barrows, Miss Lifer, of Philadelphia, Messrs. O. E. Curtis, Jerome Anderson, V. B. Shull, L. L. Burrows, J. W. Clifton, E. M. Young, Albert Barber, H. B. Durfee, Charles Owens, Theron Powers, and Chas. W. Armstrong, of Chicago.

A 40-cent ball, for which the Pleiades orchestra supplied the music, came off at the Eldorado host house. There was a good-sized crowd present, and all had a good time if it was hot.

CHURCH PICNICS.

The young people of the German Lutheran church and friends spent the day very pleasantly at Webber's old park. A picnic dinner was served.

The members of the German Methodist church and friends from Boody, Moawana, and other points, had possession of the Eldridge spring grove on West Decatur street, and all had a good time discussing a splendid dinner, swinging and engaging in a variety of games. The pastor, Rev. Wm. Schoenig, Rev. B. Havighurst, vice-president of the German M. E. College at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa; Rev. Emil Barb, of Moawana; Rev. Philip Nauman, Capt. H. A. Miller, Fred Nienker, of Boody, were present, and several short speeches were made.

In Cassel's pasture east of the hill the members and friends of St. James' German Catholic church spent the day. There was music and games, and plenty of refreshments were served. Rev. Lam-mert received all visitors cordially.

PARTY PICNICS.

Shady Grove, near the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sherry Johns, between Orleans and Cerro Gordo, afforded a delightful retreat for the Misses Adele Shellabarger, Alie Priest, Cora King, Jessie Stevens, Laura Johnson, Nellie Dora, Belle Burrows, Meta Batteiger, Ollie Oglesby and Dora and Lula Waleston, and Messrs. Ed. Judson, Ed. Powers, Frank Curtis, Geo. Dodson, Frank Roach, Cyrus Bandolph, Wilson Bering, Bering Burrows and Joseph and Arthur Alexander, and many others, who spent the 4th very pleasantly. A fine dinner was discussed. The party made the trip in buggies.

The E. B. Pratt family—about 25 in number—spent the day at Boiling Springs, and each individual who participated, from the youngest to the eldest, reports that he never had a happier time. Dinner and supper were served beneath the shade of the trees, and games of various kinds received attention. The refreshments were provided in abundance.

Mrs. James Millikin celebrated the day by entertaining a company of friends at her palatial home on West Main street. The merry company enjoyed the cool breezes on the lawn and partook of choice refreshments.

SNAPS.

Judge Nelson delivered the oration of the day at Homer, in Champaign county. W. T. Cussins went to Cicero yesterday morning with Justice Corley, the latter delivering the oration of the occasion. The pair went out and returned in a buggy.

A number of small boys were up bright and early yesterday morning, making a bee line for Miller's warehouse, with bags of rags on their backs. Later these lads were seen celebrating with fire-crackers.

W. C. Johns received a bid to orate, but he firmly declined.

Henry McClelland, Earl P. Christie, G. P. Hart and Louis Fleury spent the 4th at Terre Haute, attending the Knights of Pythias celebration.

Charley Wagenseller, city editor of the Review, spent the Fourth with the old folks at Pekin, his home.

The new street car line did a rushing business yesterday. Two cars were kept going all day, and many took a ride at a nickel a trip.

Rev. Curtis Powell celebrated by starting for the Clear Lake camp meeting to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ewing spent the 4th in Bloomington, where David Davis presided at the celebration and Hon. J. H. Oberly delivered the oration.

The Pleiades Orchestra furnished the music for the patriotic 4th celebration at Cicero yesterday, and did themselves proud.

The postoffice was open yesterday from 9 to 11 a. m., and from 6 to 7 p. m. All the banks and most of the business houses were closed.

Misses Mamie Woods, Gertie Smith and May Adams, and Messrs. Ellis Armstrong, G. W. Waltz and Merritt Strader were guests of Mrs. Aquilla Toland, near Latham, on the 4th.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Sergeant James F. Boyd wears the prize badge.

Hon. E. M. Haines was the orator of the day at Mt. Pleasant.

Morgan English and Ben Howenative spent the fourth at Bloomington.

Fire Chief W. J. Wayne has gone to Philadelphia and New York on business and pleasure.

Miss Gertie Magill, the charming little daughter of Mrs. Henry Magill of Clinton, is the guest of her friends in Decatur.

A. B. Campbell, salesman for J. M. Bell, grocer, was partially prostrated by the heat on Tuesday afternoon. He has recovered.

Elder and Mrs. B. B. Tyler left last night for Boston, accompanied by Miss Alice Tyler, who will visit in the east several months.

G. M. Wood, C. M. Imboden, Samuel Weisell and W. B. Newell put in the afternoon of the 4th at the fair grounds pitching quoits. The parties were evenly matched.

Mrs. S. H. Anderson, of Genoa, Neb., accompanied by her daughter Maria and son Arthur, who has been visiting in this county for several months, departed this morning for the west.

Circuit Clerk McClelland is the possessor of a handsome new office desk, built by the Decatur furniture company. It is a very convenient affair and was constructed under the direction of the clerk.

Mr. Charles Thayer and bride, of Boston, were registered at the New Downing on the fourth. They are en route to Cheyenne, Wyt. Mr. Thayer is a step-son of Supervisor Hoyt of Harriswood.

Homer Bailey, formerly a salesman in the dress goods department at Linn & Scruggs, is in the city. Mr. Bailey is traveling for a New York wholesale house. His territory is the state of Ohio.

Rev. J. P. Dimmitt departed on the morning train for the Clear Lake camp-meeting. Rev. Joel Goodrick, of Jacksonville, will fill the pulpit of the First M. E. church next Sabbath morning and evening.

Geo. C. Holt, of the Southwestern Creamery Association, Osceola, Iowa, is in the city to-day, conferring with the 19 stockholders of the Decatur Company with reference to the location of the necessary buildings. Several points are proposed.

Horace Andrews, of Leroy, Ohio, son of Col. L. M. Andrews, is in the city to-day. In June last Horace and his brother, A. V. Andrews, both of whom are graduates of the Decatur high school, graduated from the Cincinnati Law School. Horace has been admitted to practice his profession in the Ohio courts.

MARRIED.

In this city at the Palace hotel, on July 4, 1883, by Judge S. F. Greer, Mr. JOHN P. WILKINSON and Miss EMMA R. SHELLEY, both of Latham, Ill.

In this city at the home of the bride's parents in the fifth ward, on July 4, 1883, by T. B. Albert, J. F. McTHOMAS McKENNEY, of Niantic, and Miss LIZIE HOLT.

In this city by Rev. J. P. Dimmitt, at the residence of the bride on North Church street, at 8 o'clock p. m., July 4, 1883, Mr. JOHN T. GRANT, of Belmont, and Mrs. MARY B. McWHINNEY.

A Picnic for Everybody.

I will from this day until the season is at a close, sell all my Military Goods, Notions, and Ladies' and children's Furnishing Goods at net cost. This will give everybody a chance to buy goods in my line cheap. My goods are all new, and trimmed up by a first-class trimmer from Chicago, who we have re-engaged for the next thirty days.
